BLACKWELL FAMILY.

By Miss Stella Pickett Hardy, Batesville, Ark.

Tradition says, that the Blackwell's of Virginia, are of ancient English origin, and that the progenitor was Joseph Blackwell who came to the Colony in 1636, and who was one of the King's Surveyors, and that his family seat was "Walnut Lodge," in Northumberland Co., Va.

Now for facts, "Walnut Lodge," Northumberland Co., Va., has for generations been the seat of the Blackwell Family, and it is here that many of the family are buried. The progenitor of the family, was one Joseph Blackwell, to date I have found no proof of the date of his arrival in the Colony, or how early he resided in Northumberland. (Northumberland Co. was created in 1648, and the early records were destroyed by fire in 1710). He was evidently a man of parts, his seal, which bears the family arms, is still preserved in the family, is now owned by Mr. Edward Blackwell of Northumberland Co., Va., (I have an impression from same) they are thus:

Arms—Argent, a talbot courant sable, on a chief decette of the second three bezants.
